2. Dissenters' Right of Appraisal

As provided by Title X of the Revised Corporation Code of the Philippines (Republic Act No. 11232) ("Revised Corporation Code"), any stockholder of a corporation shall have the right to dissent and demand payment of the fair value of his shares in the following instances:

- 2.1 In case an amendment to the Articles of Incorporation has the effect of changing or restricting the rights of any stockholders or class of shares, or of authorizing preferences in any respect superior to those of outstanding shares of any class, or of extending or shortening the term of corporate existence;
- 2.2 In case of sale, lease, exchange, transfer, mortgage, pledge or other disposition of all or substantially all of the corporate property and assets as provided in the Revised Corporation Code;
- 2.3 In case of merger or consolidation; and
- 2.4 In case of investment of corporate funds for any purpose other than the primary purpose of the corporation.

In order for the stockholder to exercise the right, he or she must vote against any of the enumerated instances which the corporation will pursue. The procedures in the exercise of the right are the following:

- 2.5 Written demand on the corporation within 30 days after the date that the vote was taken.
- 2.6 Submission of the shares of the dissenting stockholder to the corporation for notation within 10 days from the written demand. The corporation has to pay the stockholder with the fair value of the shares within 30 days after demanding payment for his or her shares.
- 2.7 Failure to make the demand within 30 days after the date on which the vote was taken shall be deemed a waiver of the appraisal right.

There will be no matters that will be taken up at the meeting which may warrant the exercise of this right.

3. Interest of Certain Persons in or Opposition to Matters to be Acted Upon

There is no person who has been a director or officer of ALFM Global Multi-Asset Income Fund, Inc. at any time since the beginning of the last calendar year, or who is a nominee for election as director, who has a substantial interest in any matter to be acted upon at the Annual Stockholders' Meeting. AS OF DECEMBER 31, 2023

The U.S. economy grew by 6.6% YoY on average in 2023, posting strong growth numbers for the year showing continuing recovery from the pandemic. The Federal Reserve continued on its tightening phase as it raised policy rates by a total of 100 bps ending the year at 5.50% in a bid to curb inflation. Inflation did come down from a high of 6.4% at the beginning of the year to 3.4% by year-end. On average, inflation posted a CPI figure of 4.1% for the year. This is significantly lower than the previous year's CPI average of 8%. For the year, the yield on the 10-year U.S. Treasury declined by about 111 basis points from a high of 4.99% before closing at 3.88% as of December 31, 2023. Despite a volatile year, the stock market turned in a solid performance in 2023. Except for a few brief sell-offs, the S&P 500 gained 23.9% for the year. The Dow Jones Industrial Average gained 13.4% in 2024, while the Nasdaq Composite gained 43.3%.

In the Eurozone, economic activity also posted growth albeit below 1% for most quarters. The European region grew by 0.6% on average in 2023, a decrease from the 3.6% average growth posted in 2022. Meanwhile, inflation has declined steadily in 2023, ending at 2.9% for the year as the economy continued to rebound from the shock of the pandemic, activity restrictions have been lifted and supply struggles to keep pace with demand, driving up energy costs and creating shortages of many materials. For the year, the yield on the 10-year Bund declined by about 55 basis points to 2.02% by year-end.

Shares Portion of the Fund

The ALFM Global Multi-Asset Income Fund saw its Net Asset Value move up slightly from USD 1.002M as of the beginning of the year to USD 1.062M as of end-December 2023. The number of issued shares remained at 1,000,000 as of December 31, 2023.
